I love singing. I'm in the school choir. Selina Grant is my favourite singer. I want to be a well-known and popular singer like her. (Hope I'll become a household name too.) If I become a singer, I'll perform on stage and bring happiness to lots of people with my songs.

I've wanted to be a lawyer since I was seven. If I become a lawyer, I'll help people in trouble. I'll study hard now so that I can study law at a university.

Many poor people can't make enough money to make a living. They can't afford bigger flats, so they live in small and crowded sub-divided flats. They feel helpless and hopeless. I hope to listen to their problems and help them improve their lives. I think helping others is meaningful and fulfilling.

I like talking to people and I like travelling around the world. I want to learn more about people and places in other countries. I want to make sure that people have fun and are safe when they travel.

Hong Kong is a wonderful place but there aren't enough flats for people to live in. When I grow up, I want to be an architect and build lots of nice and beautiful buildings. Then everyone can live comfortably.
