

B Ken is reading an article about his school's Charity Week. Finish the webpage with the correct form of the verbs given. (1 mark each)

5 mins

Marks: /14

← → http://www.stpba.edux.hk/charity_club/charity_week_20XX

Charity Week

We are celebrating the 15th anniversary of the school's Charity Week this year. Since 2006, the Charity Club (1) _____ (organise) all the activities for Charity Week. The aims of the Week (2) _____ (be) to let students know more about charity work and teach them to care for others. Every member of the Club (3) _____ (have) experience in working as volunteers for charities. Most of them (4) _____ (help) our teachers to promote Dress Casual Day and other charity events last year. Shirley Yip, the chairperson of the Club this year, and her club members (5) _____ (organise) the activities during Charity Week and promoted them this year.

The first activity of the Week this year was a talk for students and teachers. The club members (6) _____ (invite) the president Ms Cynthia Gibson of Fund for Love, an international charity, to be the speaker at the talk. Ms Gibson (7) _____ (share) with us her valuable experience in helping others. She (8) _____ (do) a lot of charity work for 30 years.

The club members (9) _____ (hold) the second event on the following two days after the talk. They (10) _____ (put) on a drama for P1–P3 students to help them build good relationships with their grandparents and the elderly. On the fourth and fifth day, the club members (11) _____ (raise) more than $30,000 for Merry Home for the Elderly at a fun fair. They (12) _____ (run) different stalls and (13) _____ (sell) lots of second-hand books, toys and crafts.

This year's Charity Week was a huge success and the club members would like to thank all the teachers and students who (14) _____ (support) them during the Week.