

QB Lyla is reading a webpage about Australia. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the given verbs.
(2 marks each)

Marks: /10

← → www.travelaustralia/festivals/Chinese festivals

Chinese Festival Celebrations in Australia

Every year, this major Chinese festival (1) _____ (celebrate) with lots of exciting events in the city. Exhibitions of spectacular Chinese lanterns (2) _____ (hold) near the Sydney Opera House. A traditional Dragon Boat Race (3) _____ (watch) by thousands of people over the weekend. Each night, with the Opera House as the backdrop, beautiful fireworks (4) _____ (display). And lion dances (5) _____ (perform) (one of which is 15 metre long!). Don't miss these exciting events!

C Lyla and her parents are flying to Sydney. Lyla is reading a magazine on the plane. Fill in the blanks with which / who.
(1 mark each)

Marks: /6

Travelling in Sydney

You can visit the Opera House (1) _____ looks like some sail-shaped shells. The special design makes the building a symbol of the country. In the surrounding area, you can always see tourists (2) _____ are posing for photo-taking with the building as the backdrop. Nearby is the magnificent Harbour Bridge. Tourists (3) _____ are brave enough can take the challenge of climbing the bridge.

A lot of tourists enjoy playing water sports such as surfing and sunbathing at beaches (4) _____ are long and beautiful. Those tourists (5) _____ are interested in wildlife can go whale-watching. They can jump onboard one of the large boats (6) _____ take them to the open ocean to watch whales or other sea animals ...