

Do this before you read the next chapter

Take some of the motions below. Prepare cases for and against them, using what you have learnt in this chapter, and doing some extra research to extend your knowledge.

How Britain is run

- This house would abolish the monarchy.
- This house would make voting in General Elections compulsory.
- This house would make it compulsory for 50% of MPs to be female.
- This house would introduce proportional representation.
- This house would abolish the House of Lords.
- This house would impose term limits on Prime Ministers.
- This house would make it compulsory for every other Prime Minister to be female.
- This house would ban referendums.

How the economy works

- This house would privatise the NHS.
- This house would nationalise the railways.
- This house would tax land.
- This house would introduce a flat tax.
- This house would introduce a maximum wage.
- This house would cut benefits.
- This house would boycott companies that do not pay tax in the UK.
- This house would introduce a carbon tax.