Some words in the following passage have been underlined for you. There are mistakes with these words. Write the correct answers in the blanks.

Being chased by a dog

One day, my uncle Ivan has to deliver some letters to a nearby village. On first, he was quite happy. He took his bag and starts to walk there. He knew most of the peoples in the village. He went from door to door, giving the letters for the villagers. Soon he finished his works and returned to the post office. On the way, he sees a big dog. The dog looked angry and started to run after my uncle. Luckily, a dog did not bit my uncle and stopped chasing after a while. My uncle was happily again when the dog had left.
