H Mandy is reading a newspaper article. Read the article.

Asia Young Post
1st October 20XX Leisure

Mong Kok – The Most Crowded Place in Hong Kong

Mong Kok is the most crowded place in Hong Kong. There are always many people in the streets, shops and restaurants. A lot of them are teenagers and tourists.

Mong Kok is famous for its theme markets. The shops and stalls in the same street or area sell the same kind of items. The famous ones are Ladies' Market (at Tong Choi Street), Yuen Po Street Bird Garden and Flower Market (at Flower Market Road). We can find a lot of tourists at these markets. But for teenagers, they like hanging out and shopping with their friends at some small shopping centres. These centres have different small shops selling stylish clothes, comics and toys.

We can also find different kinds of delicious food in Mong Kok. At street-side food stalls, we can find fish balls and fried bean curd. At some local cafes, we can find egg tarts, milk tea and pineapple buns. Next time when you go to Mong Kok, don't forget to try these kinds of delicious food!

By John Lo

TSA Choose the best answer by blackening the circle. 10 marks (2 marks each)

*1. This newspaper is mainly for _____ .

- ○ A babies
- ○ B young people
- ○ C parents
- ○ D old people

© Pearson Education Asia Limited