Matt is reading a leaflet about some Hong Kong Heritage Society events. Read the leaflet carefully and choose the best answers for Questions 17 – 22.

Hong Kong Heritage Society

This month's highlights

Let's enjoy Hong Kong's living heritage!

Paper-cutting Workshop

In this workshop, you will learn the Chinese folk art of paper-cutting, which dates back to the fourth century. All participants will go home with their own beautiful paper cut to display.

Date : Monday, 2nd March

Time : 5:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Fee : $250

Introduction to Wing Chun

Wing Chun was brought to Hong Kong in the 1950s by martial artist Ip Man and became famous worldwide through the films of his student, Bruce Lee. In this class, you will learn basic body positions and balance.

Date : Saturday, 7th March

Time : 8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

Fee : $500

Light Up Your Life

Hong Kong's colourful neon signs are admired by everyone from tourists to film-makers, but they may soon disappear. In this workshop, you will make your own from easy-to-shape plastic light tubes.

Date : Friday, 6th March

Time : 6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Fee : $400

Do-it-yourself Dim Sum

Make dim sum from scratch – dumpling wrappers and all. A chef will show you how to prepare specialities such as barbecue pork-stuffed buns, turnip cake, shrimp dumplings and more. Delicious!

Date : Every Sunday in March

Time : 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Fee : $300 per class

Edible Heritage

Everyday snacks such as curry fish balls and pineapple buns are part of Hong Kong's cultural heritage. On this Sham Shui Po walking tour, we will learn about the history of some of these favourites and see how 'silk stocking' tea and egg tarts are made. Bring an appetite!

Date : Saturday, 14th March

Time : 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Fee : $300 (all food and drinks included)
