

Daisy is reading a story about a postman. Read the story.

Simon the Postman

1 Simon is a postman. He has a round face and he wears blue glasses. He is tall and fat. He wears a smart uniform at work. He wears a green shirt, a pair of black trousers and a black belt.

5 Every morning, Simon goes to Chai Wan Post Office, and puts a lot of letters and parcels in his large dark green bag. After that, he carries it and sends the letters and parcels to different addresses on Hong Kong Island. He walks to the places or drives a car to get there.

10 Simon always goes to Yuen Ming House and gives letters and parcels to the people there. They are nice to Simon and always greet him. For example, they say 'Good morning!' and 'Good afternoon!' to him. Simon is glad.

15 One day, Simon goes to Yuen Ming House again. When he arrives, he drops his glasses carelessly! They break. Simon is sad. Mrs Wong and Mr Lau see him and ask, 'Simon, why are you so sad?' Simon replies, 'I break my glasses. I cannot see the addresses on the letters and parcels clearly.' Mrs Wong and Mr Lau say, 'Don't worry! We can help you!' Then, they read the addresses to Simon. Simon is happy again! He thanks them. Mrs Wong and Mr Lau feel happy too because they can help him.

20 Simon loves his job very much because there are so many good people around him.

Vocabulary

round (adj.)

uniform (n.)

parcel (n.)

address (n.)

arrive (v.)

drop (v.)

around (prep.)