

Kenny is reading an infographic about Christmas. Read the infographic.

Fun Things About Christmas

Christmas Stockings

Many children put their Christmas stockings near a fireplace. They wait for Santa Claus to put a gift in them. Some people say that Santa Claus puts gifts in the stockings of good children, but he puts coal in the stockings of bad children!

Pictures of Santa Claus

Before 1931, the pictures of Santa Claus show that he wears green, purple and blue clothes. In 1931, Coca Cola asks a painter to draw a new Santa Claus. From then on, Santa Claus dresses up in red clothes. Also, he has rosy cheeks and a white beard on his face.

The Biggest Gift

Many people buy gifts for their family and friends at Christmas. The biggest Christmas gift in the world is the Statue of Liberty! In 1886, France gives it to the USA.

Gifts for Santa Claus

Santa Claus is very busy at Christmas. So, he feels tired at that time. Some people say that we can thank him and give him some gifts. They say that his favourite gifts are cookies and milk.

Vocabulary

stocking (n.)

Statue of Liberty (n.)

fireplace (n.)

before (prep.)

coal (n.)

rosy (adj.)

biggest (adj.)

beard (n.)