My Pets — Scarlett, Jay and Harvey ♥

My cat, Scarlett, passed away last year. I remember when my mum brought her home, I was just six. Scarlett was scared of us in the beginning. She hid under the coffee table every day. She (1) _____ stayed there for the whole day and did not come out at all. She (2) _____ let us touch her even once. However, in three months' time, we finally melted her heart. When I was eight, we adopted two new puppies — Jay and Harvey. At first, we were afraid that Scarlett would not get along with them. To our surprise, they became friends soon. They (3) _____ played together and never stayed away from one another. They (4) _____ fought. I think they only fought a few times a year.

Because of Scarlett's death, I was very depressed. I did not let my mum throw away her toys and I kept all her toys in a box. In the first few months after her death, I (5) _____ took out her toys and cleaned them. I cleaned them four to five times a week. Now I still miss Scarlett very much. And so do Jay and Harvey. When they see any cat, they bark sadly.
