

Resolved: That showing disrespect for the American Flag is antithetical to fundamental American values.

Resolved: That the pursuit of scientific knowledge ought to be limited by a concern for societal good.

Resolved: That members of the United States Congress ought to value the national interest above constituent's interests when the two are in conflict.

1991-1992

Resolved: A liberal arts curriculum is preferable to an employment-readiness curriculum in U.S. secondary schools.

Resolved: Human genetic engineering is morally justified.

Resolved: A victim's deliberate use of deadly force is justified as a response to physical abuse.

Resolved: The possession of nuclear weapons is immoral.

Resolved: The United States government ought to provide for the medical care of its citizens.

1992-1993

Resolved: That U.S. military interference in the internal affairs of other countries is justified.

Resolved: In the criminal justice system, truth seeking ought to take precedence over privilege communication.

Resolved: When in conflict, the spirit of the law ought to take priority over the letter of the law.

Resolved: The principle of majority rule ought to be valued above the principle of minority rights.

Resolved: The protection of domestic order justifies the curtailment of First Amendment Rights.

1993-1994

Resolved: That secondary education in the United States ought to be a privilege, not a right.

Resolved: The public's right to know is of greater value than the right to privacy of candidates for public office.

Resolved: When called upon by one's government, individuals are morally obligated to risk their lives for their country.

Resolved: Terminally ill patients have the right to die when and how they choose.

Resolved: When in conflict, protection of the innocent is of greater value than prosecution of the guilty.

1994-1995

Resolved: An individual's freedom of expression is of greater value than political correctness.