

Resolved: A victim's deliberate use of deadly force is a just response to repeated domestic violence.

Resolved: The actions of corporations ought to be held to the same moral standards as the actions of individuals.

Resolved: The United Nation's obligation to protect global human rights ought to be valued above its obligation to respect national sovereignty.

Resolved: On balance, violent revolution is a just response to political oppression.

PAST PUBLIC FORUM RESOLUTIONS

2002-2003

Resolved: Commercial airline pilots should be armed in the cockpit.

Resolved: That the "Bush" tax cuts should be made permanent.

Resolved: The Federal Government should authorize oil exploration in the Arctic National Wildlife Reserve.

Resolved: The death penalty should be abolished in America.

Resolved: Affirmative action should not be practiced in college and university admission.

Resolved: Awards for pain and suffering in medical malpractice cases should be limited to $250,000.

Resolved: That the United States should assume primary responsibility for the rebuilding of Iraq.

2003-2004

Resolved: Use of a cell phone should be prohibited while operating a motor vehicle.

Resolved: That the United States should comply with United Nations' decisions concerning international peacekeeping operations.

Resolved: That Federal judges should be elected in their district for a limited term rather than appointed by the President for a life term.

Resolved: That Congress should repeal the No Child Left Behind Act.

Resolved: The United States is losing the War on Terror.

Resolved: Americans should be allowed to share copyrighted media over the Internet.

Resolved: The United States should provide universal health insurance to all U.S. citizens.

Resolved: English should be the official national language of the United States.

Resolved: All young adults in every nation should be required to perform at least one full year of national service.

2004-2005