

Resolved: That the United States should establish a cabinet-level position to oversee its entire intelligence community.

Resolved: In the United States, public opinion polls positively affect the election process.

Resolved: The United States government should allow Americans to purchase prescription drugs from other countries.

Resolved: Corporate offshoring aids in the economic development of the United States.

Resolved: The United States Constitution should be amended to establish a mandatory retirement age for Supreme Court Justices.

Resolved: In the United States, the current system of federal income taxation should be replaced by a flat rate income tax.

Resolved: Student aptitude should be assessed through standardized testing.

Resolved: The United States should issue guest worker visas to illegal aliens.

Resolved: That, when a choice is required for public high schools in the United States, government funding should prioritize vocational education over college preparatory education.

2005-2006

Resolved: In the United States, colleges and universities should be permitted to pay stipends to their Division I athletes.

Resolved: That the United Nations should be the primary agent to lead and direct the fight against terrorism around the world.

Resolved: That the United States federal government should fund Hurricane Katrina relief and rebuilding by ending President Bush's tax cuts.

Resolved: That the National Basketball Association (NBA) should rescind its dress code.

Resolved: In the United States, public high school science curriculum should include the study of the Theory of Intelligent Design.

Resolved: That the policy decisions of the current Israeli government toward the Palestinian state have improved prospects for peace in the Middle East.

Resolved: That big box retailers benefit the communities in which they are located.

Resolved: That the American media work against the best interest of the American public.

Resolved: That the United States government should ratify the Kyoto Protocol.

2006-2007

Resolved: That the benefits of NASA's space exploration programs justify the costs.

Resolved: Current immigration laws in the United States should be enforced.

Resolved: That participating in multinational diplomatic efforts is beneficial to U.S. interests.