

Acknowledgments

Thanks are due to the authors of previous editions, Robert Trapp, Joseph P. Zompetti, Jurate Motiejunaite, and William Driscoll. Although this edition is a full rewrite, I hope that they will see it as an appropriate development of their work and consider the new text as a useful stage in an ongoing process.

Thanks are also due to IDEBATE Press for the opportunity to work on this project and, in particular, to my editor, Eleanora von Dehsen, without whose endless patience, encouragement, and expertise this book would probably not have been started and certainly not have been finished. My thanks are also due to Carole Campbell for copyediting the manuscript.

I am also grateful to Sharmila Parmanand and Irena Kotíková for their efforts in reviewing the format chapters in Part Two and to Irene McGrath who came through in splendid style with guidance on certain aspects of the World Schools format. Chapter 17 on notes is hugely improved by the addition of an example of debaters' shorthand and I am grateful to Emily Ravenscroft-Stuckenbruck for allowing me to reproduce her work. I am also grateful for the advice and guidance of various friends and colleagues, notably Professor Stephen M. Llano, Professor Sean Corner, Neill Harvey-Smith, Ray D'Cruz, Andy Hume, and Chris Elliott for their advice relating to aspects of the chapters on critical thinking, argumentation, and manner, as well as for their friendship and support throughout the process and in so many other projects.