
CHAPTER CHECKLIST

- Topics tend to address broad issues of international appeal rather than specific programs.
 - World Schools debate is between teams, not individuals.
 - The format encourages the use of Points of Information.
 - Reply speakers are to review the debate, not to contribute new material to it.
 - Some tournaments permit teams to include reserve speakers.
 - The debate is judged on content, style, and strategy.
-