

Substantive arguments—See Constructive arguments.

Summation—Process used by a final speaker to draw together the themes of the debate.

Warrant—Middle part of an argument wherein the debater bridges the evidence she has presented and the claim she wishes to make.