

29. NEGATIVE WORKSHEET

GOAL:

To teach students how to negate a resolution.

METHOD:

- Using a resolution that students are likely to debate in the future, ask them to complete the following statements on paper:
 - The affirmative is likely to say that...
 - These arguments are insufficient because...
 - The negative philosophy is....
 - After completing the statements, students can be paired or can work in small groups to develop more comprehensive answers.
 - Finally, all of the answers can be shared or discussed by the class.
